Lindsey began his insurance career in 1989 and has been with Glatfelter Insurance since 2003. He attained his MBA from the University of San Francisco and his Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from UCLA.

Having an in-depth knowledge of the Glatfelter insurance products lends strength to Lindsey's ability to use creative ways to underwrite accounts and solve challenges. He has a very good understanding of the marketplace and the everyday, real challenges which face agents on the front line. Some of Lindsey's strongest assets include being able to make decisions in difficult situations, being dedicated to delivering on promises and commitments, his unrivaled willingness to help others, being responsive with the capability of focusing on issues on a particular account while overseeing the big picture of all accounts. Lindsey manages the associates in our Stockton, CA office and ensures that they are prompt, courteous and knowledgeable when it comes to the services we provide to meet the agents' and insureds' needs.

When not at Glatfelter Public Practice, Lindsey also has a passion for cycling, listening to jazz, attending concerts and festivals, is a part-time audiophile, enjoys the culinary arts of food, wine and cooking, and is a big proponent of keeping up with current events. He also enjoys international travel, reading and both contemporary and modern art as areas of interest.

Glatfelter Public Practice is a premier public entity program manager. We provide insurance and risk management solutions for over 4,000 public entities including those who treat, store and distribute water and wastewater; municipalities and miscellaneous public entities; public, private and charter educational institutions, and school bus contractors.
